Fagan Park

Situated only 5 minutes drive from Crusaders Galston Gorge, Fagan Park is 55 hectares of fun for the whole family. There's plenty to entertain yourself with including a flying fox, water area, sandpit, climbing gyms and an assortment of slides and swings. Throughout the park there is also plenty of space to toss a Frisbee, fly a kite, have a game of cricket or escape to the picnic shelters for a barbeque lunch. Fagan Park also has beautiful and well-kept Internationally-themed gardens for you to enjoy. Adjacent to the park is the rural museum (open on the second Sunday of every month) and the original Fagan family homestead which is open to view.

Kayaking or Boating

Drive from Galston for 15 minutes and you'll find yourself at the enchanting waters of Berowra Creek. At the Berowra Waters Marina, you can hire kayaks and small boats and head off to explore the secluded beaches and stunning sandstone cliffs that form the Berowra Valley. Berowra Waters offers single and double kayaks so you can enjoy a relaxing paddle by yourself, or have a fun adventure with your family or friends. For a relaxing day out, the Berowra Waters BBQ Boat is licensed to seat twelve people, children included. It has a sun awning, FM radio, toilet/changing area, swim ladder and of course a BBQ for your time on the water.

Bushwalking

Discover the enchanting beauty of Galston Gorge by taking one of the many picturesque bushwalking tracks. Across Galston you'll find yourself on the Great North Walk, on bush tracks and service trails. Highlights include the Steele Bridge, MacDonald Truss Bridge, Calana Creek, the Fishponds, the magnificent views from the top of the ridges between Galston Gorge and Crosslands, majestic waterfalls and classic sandstone formations in and around the area.
Rose Seidler House

The Blues Point Tower, Grosvenor Place, MLC Centre, Australia Square and Darlinghurst’s Horizon Apartment block are just a few of influential architect Harry Seidler’s works found throughout Sydney. However, none was as revolutionary to the sydney-sider as Rose Seidler’s House. When Harry Seidler moved from America to Sydney in 1948, he was inspired to create a live-able, functional, sculptural modernist home for his parents Rose and Max. Only a 20 minute drive from Galston Gorge, this Historic Houses Trust landmark is a must-see example of modern architecture.
