Use the above table to write out the regular things you do each day of the week (write specific times for each).

Then, write in where you’ll plan to have daily time with God through reading the Bible and prayer.

Finally, take this home and stick it up somewhere where you’ll see it and be reminded.