

Dirty Little Secret Scenarios

Scenario 1

Imagine your friend told you he felt full of shame because he stole from a shop last week.

Would you tell your friend...

- a) not to feel shame over it?
- b) that it is right he feels shame over it?

Scenario 2

Imagine your friend told you he did something wrong last week. He has already asked Jesus for forgiveness and does not want to do it again, but he still feels full of shame.

What could you say to your friend to help?

Scenario 3

Imagine your friend told you he had done something so wrong that God could never forgive him.

What could you say to your friend to help?
