

FULL HEARTS SCENARIOS

Scenario 1

Alex has returned home early from school. He knows that he could watch some videos on the internet which all his friends said are funny. He also knows his parents wouldn't want him watching them because they are full of swearing and are rude about other people. He thinks they won't influence him to swear and be rude. What should he do?

Scenario 2

For Hannah's birthday her parents bought her a subscription to a magazine that she likes to read. It's full of stories about famous people. Hannah loves reading a lot of the articles. However she knows that some of the stories are full of gossip and advice that is against what the Bible says. She doesn't know whether to keep reading the magazine, or throw it away and maybe upset her parents. What should she do?

Scenario 3

Will has a new game for his Xbox which is rated PG in single player mode, but in multiplayer mode can be inappropriate for someone his age. He has only ever played it in single player mode, but is curious about playing multiplayer. He is worried that if he plays multiplayer it might not be appropriate, but he also thinks it could be really fun. What should he do?

Scenario 4

Fiona used to love reading her Bible and she read it every day. Then she started reading a series of books which she can't stop reading. It's too addictive. Since she started reading them she hasn't had time to read her Bible. She still wants to read her Bible, she just hasn't got around to it. What should she do?

Scenario 5

Millie just read Philippians 4:8 and has decided she wants to do everything she can to be thinking about things which are true, noble, right, pure, lovely, admirable, excellent and praiseworthy. What sort of things do you think she can be doing?
